

Press Release

Global Oil & Gas AG shares will be listed in the Entry Standard, starting April 20th 2012

Management of Global Oil & Gas AG (“GOG”) announces that Deutsche Boerse AG has approved GOG’s request to include its shares in the Entry Standard trading segment on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange. GOG’s shares will be traded in the Entry Standard from April 20th 2012 onwards and will cease a quotation in the First Quotation Board.

The admission of Global Oil & Gas AG’s shares to the Entry Standard goes along with higher duties with regard to transparency and information policies that GOG already mainly complied with since its first quotation as a publicly listed company. Management believes that these higher transparency and information standards and the Entry Standard’s high reputation will increase the attractiveness of GOG’s shares for existing and future shareholders and investors.

Bad Vilbel, 20th April 2012

Contact: Jan M. Herbst, Tel. +49 231-700 82 08

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release may include statements of future expectations and other forward-looking statements that may involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties. Actual results and developments or events may differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements due to, without limitation, general economic conditions and the competitive situation, especially in the core business areas and markets of Global Oil & Gas AG, the impact of acquisitions, including the subsequent integration of those companies and re-organisation measures. Furthermore the development of financial markets and currency exchanges rates as well as national and international changes in laws and regulation, especially in tax issues, could have a significant impact. The company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement.